

1884, ch. 54.

150. Any person or body corporate who shall be so convicted and fined, and shall fail to pay such fine and the costs of prosecution forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland house of correction for a term not exceeding six months, or until such fine and costs are paid.

Ibid.

151. Any person or body corporate who shall in any way barter or sell intoxicating drinks of any kind or description in Kent county, except as hereinafter provided, shall be fined as provided in section 149, and punished on non-payment of such fine, as provided in section 150.

Ibid.

152. Nothing contained in said sections shall be construed to prevent the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks in Kent county, for medicinal purposes, by a regular pharmacist and druggist having a license for such business under the laws of this State; provided, such sale be made only upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular physician practising in said county, containing the name of the person for whom the liquor, alcoholic bitters or other intoxicants are prescribed, the kind and quantity of the same, the date on which the prescription is made, and the full ordinary name of the physician making it, all written in ink; the date of filling such prescription shall be endorsed on the back thereof, by the pharmacist and druggist filling the same, in ink, who shall file and keep all such prescriptions filed separate from all other prescriptions, and exhibit the same to the State's attorney, or any grand jury or justice of the peace of said county, calling for the production thereof; and no such prescription shall serve for more than one purchase; no physician shall make or sign any such prescription, unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, or such liquor or alcoholic bitters or intoxicants is absolutely required as a medicine; in no case shall a pharmacist and druggist permit any liquor, alcoholic bitters or other intoxicating drinks obtained under such prescription, to be drunk anywhere on his premises except in cases of sudden illness; all pharmacists and druggists shall be liable for the acts of their clerks, agents
